

PRIVACY POLICY

What Information Do We Collect?

When filling out a form on our site you may be asked to enter your name, e-mail address, mailing address or phone number. You may, however, visit our site anonymously.

What do we use your information for?

The email address you provide may be used to send you information, respond to inquiries and/or other requests or questions.

Do We Use Cookies?

We do not use cookies.

Do We Disclose any Information to Outside Parties?

We do not sell, trade or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information.

Third Party Links

Occasionally, at our discretion we may include or offer third party products or services on our website. These third party sites have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

Maintaining Security of Your Private Information

We will work to ensure that your non-public personal information remains confidential and secure. To do so, we have established the following procedures to protect against unauthorized access to your personal information:

- The only persons with access to your non-public personal information are those persons who need to know about the information to underwrite, process, service, or market insurance products and services
- We will keep your information physically and electronically secure
- If it comes to our attention that a piece of personal information that we possess may be inaccurate or false we will make a reasonable effort to re-verify its accuracy and correct any error as appropriate

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act Compliance

We are in compliance with the requirements of COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act). We do not collect any information from anyone under 13 years of age. Our website products and services are all directed to people who are at least 13 years old or older.
